MEMORIAL DAY

Exercises at the Park on Martin Avenue

Announcement

ON the 21st of June, 1904, the Columbus Chapter will unveil, with suitable ceremonies, a memorial. This memorial will be a huge boulder, bearing a bronze tablet suitably inscribed. It will be placed on the north end of the park on Martin Avenue.

In 1813, this park was part of a grove on the property of Lucas Sullivant (the founder of Franklinton, now West Columbus). In this grove, on the 21st of June, 1813, was held a council between General William Henry Harrison, representing the United States Government, and the Indians, comprising Wyandots, Shawnees, Delawares and Senecas, with Tarhe, the Crane, the great Wyandot Chief, as spokesman for the Indians.

As a result of this council, permanent peace was established between the whites and the Indian tribes of Ohio. The memorial will commemorate this important event.
